This very well-maintained and cosy flat has a bright and pleasant living room with access to a glazed, covered terrace. In addition, the home has a lovely and very sunny terrace with a large awning - perfect for creating pleasant shade on the hottest days. The flat consists of 2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom and kitchen with direct access to a practical laundry room. The property also has a pretty and sunny private garden area with a pergola, which provides a pleasant outdoor area for relaxation and social moments. There is also a large storage room with plenty of space for storing bicycles, suitcases, sun loungers and other equipment. The home is southeast facing and is located in a quiet and pleasant area with mainly small houses, close to a green park area. The flat is sold furnished, with the exception of a specially adapted double bed and personal belongings. Rocio II is a pleasant and well-kept, smaller urbanisation only approx. 600 meters from the Mediterranean Sea. Several of the homes are used as year-round homes, which
