Bright and well-maintained flat with a large private roof terrace that gives the ultimate Mediterranean feeling. The flat has a glazed entrance hall. Inside, you are greeted by a bright and inviting living room with large glass surfaces and direct access to a covered terrace overlooking the pool area and a lovely park. The kitchen has a modern, open solution to the living room and is equipped with what you need in terms of appliances and filtered drinking water. The home has two good bedrooms and two stylish bathrooms, one of which is connected to the master bedroom. The roof terrace is the flat's big highlight, with large planted pots and automatic self-watering. It has a large glazed pergola with air conditioning. The room works great as an extra bedroom, living room or as a practical storage room for garden furniture. The terrace also has a laundry room and a practical outdoor kitchen with storage space and additional fridge. Recessed glass panels at both ends of the terrace give an airy feeling and ensure a fantastic
