Daya Nueva, Alicante

€475,000

Do you want a beautifully presented and finished new-style villa? without the wait. Constructed in 2024 and designed with great attention to detail to create elegant and contemporary home with a mix of indoor and outdoor spaces creating the perfect balance in Mediterranean living.Upon entering the terraced and pool area to the front of this amazing property, you can already appreciate the quality, not only of the build finish and design, but also that this has been so lovingly enhanced by the current owners. There are three entrances giving access to the ground-floor, ingeniously allowing also, extra light balance to the whole area. Additionally, there's a double bedroom with en-suite bathroom and direct access to the patio at the rear of the villa (4th entry/exit point). Leading off from the cleverly designed passageway is an wc, also, utility room.There are a further two double bedrooms to the first-floor, both again with en-suite bathrooms and access to a spacious sun-terrace, where you can take in the most outstanding
